Does a good mattress lead to better sleep? Absolutely YES. It's not just the mattress, it is the kind of mattress that plays an important role not only in giving you a comfortable sleep but also improves your overall health. Human being spends one-third of their full day's time in sleeping. Any disturbance in sleep would result in an increased prevalence of metabolic disorders, cardiovascular diseases, hypertension, obesity & diabetes. New research suggests that The magnetic-based mattress can help your body relax and fall into good sleep more quickly and easily.

Rare earth Bio-Magnets in medicine are often referred to as biomagnetism or magnetic therapy. Magnets are known for their healing properties; this has led to the concept that if one sleeps on a magnetic mattress can promote healthy sleep not only Bio-Magnets help restore the energy imbalance when the body undergoes any type of pain or inflammation. The magnetic field also affects the disbursement of red blood cells. As the cells move along the circulatory system and through our tissue, these cells "pick up" oxygen and nutrients. When magnets have applied these cells "spread out" more, thus giving them more room to do their jobs. More surface area means more oxygen and nutrient delivery and more energy. Yet another way magnetic field therapy helps the body to be more efficient.

How Does Magnetic Therapy Work?

Every cell in our body has a negative charge on the outside and a positive charge on the inside. This allows for electrical signalling to move throughout the body very quickly and effectively. When a region of the body is injured or inflamed it causes a lack of blood flow. This reduces oxygen and nutrients in the region which causes a lack of polarity and disrupts the natural electrical currents in the body.

Magnets work by improving circulation to the damaged region and improving the injured cell's polarity. Magnet energy is considered a catalyst that speeds up biological processes and enables the body to reduce inflammation and heal itself. Magnets also speed up circulation and improve oxygen and nutrient absorption into the targeted cells. They also help improve the efficiency of waste removal from these targeted cells.

Introducing WinWellness BioMagNT™ the highly natural 2000 gauss – a small neodymium-iron-boron (NIB) magnet designed with max comfort with pure cotton fabric for better comfort and sleep.

The BioMagNT™ mattress is known to alleviate body pains such as backaches, knee pain, headaches, any pain related to blockage, and migraines. The magnets help reduce muscle contractions, improve overall blood flow and relieve pain in bones, joints and muscles. The magnets used in BioMagNT mattresses have different strengths. It also helps the body ward off pathogens and improves tissue healing processes.

BioMagNT™ Water energy pad: Earth's magnetic field naturally charges water in lakes, well and running streams. Water is a combination of Hydrogen and oxygen. Bio-magnets break down the molecular structure of water & reduce it which is beneficial for all blood cells. Magnetic water has more hydroxyl (OH-) ions that form alkaline molecules which reduce the acidity. Normal tap water has a pH of less than 7 where as magnetized water can have a Ph as high as 9.2.

BioMagNT™ Wrist band: The inflamed area of your body will be reduced much faster when blood circulation of your body is going well just like the health benefits of wearing copper.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

WinWellness BioMagNT™ Mattress is considered to be a viable tool to soothe morning aches and achieve deeper and more recuperative sleep. It works by driving the positive ions away from the affected area to help the body return to its balanced state. When the body is in contact with the magnet undergoes an increase in blood flow and thus receives a healthy supply of oxygen and other nutrients which are good for healing. It will take 3-4 weeks to give proper results because of its bio-magnetic therapy.
